February 2023

Dear Parent/Carer

Mock Examinations

Summary of action(s) required	Deadline
Attend an online seminar about the mock examinations.	6 February 2023

In preparation for the second mock examination season taking place immediately after half-term, we would like to invite you to a short online information seminar taking place on Monday 6 February from 6.00pm. During this time, we aim to take you through some key details:

- The mock examination timetable.
- How to access supportive materials relating to the mocks.
- The quantity and quality of independent work you should expect from students at this time.

Additionally, there will also be time for Q&A using the chat function.

How to Register and Join

- You can register for the event here.
- You can then join the event via Teams here.

We look forward to seeing many of there. For those unable to attend, we shall have a recording put on our website as soon as we can.

Best wishes,

Mr E Compton
Deputy Principal
