Dear Parent/Carer

European Day of Languages – Bake Off Competition

Summary of Actions	Deadline
Encourage your child to take part and enter their European themed cakes.	Thursday 28 September

Cakes may not be the first thing that you associate with languages. The skills related to language learning are generally considered to be reading, writing, listening, and speaking. However, on the 20th anniversary of the European Day of Languages let us add baking and tasting to this repertoire of skills!

We would like to ask students to join in this tasty tradition at Bottisham by bringing their best European inspired bakes.

When: Thursday 28 September

Where: Hall 2

Every year it is a very tough task to narrow down the winners, but we are grateful to be able to recruit one local bake off finalist for the tough job! All cakes are dropped off in the language's office before Period 1. Cakes are judged in the morning with individual feedback given. Winners will be announced at the start of lunch time in Hall 2 to then be sold to raise money for our chosen charity.

Do remind your children to bring a little bit of cash on the day to try the cakes.

Thanking you in advance for your contributions to any baking going on in your house next week.

For some inspiration here is a European day of Languages recipe book:

We look forward to a diverse, creative and appetising range of bakes.

Yours sincerely
